

General Terms and Conditions: 2026 Golf Tournaments Promotion

1. Purpose of the Promotion

Olin, as the official sponsor of the PRISA Golf Tournaments on the Costa del Sol, is launching an exclusive promotion aimed at tournament attendees.

2. Promotional Benefit

Customers who sign up for Fiber or Fiber + Mobile services can benefit from a direct €50 discount on their contract.

3. Validity Period

The promotion will be valid from May 28 to September 15, 2026 (both dates inclusive).

4. Requirements and Specific Conditions to Access the Promotion

To enjoy the discount, the customer must:

- Possess the promotional code provided on the event's information card.
- Expressly communicate said code to the sales agent at the time of contracting.

The activation of fiber products remains subject to network coverage availability in the area and all other general terms and conditions of service. Check your coverage at <https://olin.es/es/fibra-movil/>. This offer is not applicable to secondary lines, television, or any other Olin products.

This offer carries a commitment period (lock-in period) due to the applied discounts, lasting for the same duration and equal to the discounted amount the customer has received. That is, if the customer cancels the service before 12 months, they must pay a penalty fee equal to the discounts obtained and enjoyed up to the date of the cancellation request. For new installations of the fiber service, the standard setup fee is €120, which may be waived (free of charge) if the customer commits to a minimum 12-month contract period.

The discount will only be applied if the customer provides the promotional code during the sign-up process. It cannot be applied retroactively.

5. Scope of Application

Promotion valid exclusively for new sign-ups made within the promotional period.

6. Compatibility

This promotion cannot be combined with any other current offers, promotions, or discounts, unless expressly stated otherwise by Olin.

7. Amendments

Olin reserves the right to modify or cancel the promotion for justified reasons, guaranteeing in any case the rights of customers who have already signed up under these terms.
